DAY 01

CUSCO – SANTA TERESA

Connect with the Andes and the jungle

The trip begins with pure adrenaline!

The tour kicks off with a drive to Ollantaytambo where we make a stop so you will have the appropriate time to acclimate and take in the first views of the Sacred Valley. From there, the journey continues to Málaga Pass (4,350 meters above sea level), next to the Verónica snow-capped mountain, to begin the challenge: a mountain bike descent through vertiginous curves. You will experience a passing from frozen moors to the edge of the jungle until reaching Huamán Marca – Santa María.

While you are biking surrounded by wonderful landscapes, our team will have a support vehicle close by in case you might need it. In the afternoon a delicious lunch will await for you.

After the lunch the adventure will continue! You will take part in a cultural experience at a rural farm. In this activity you will learn the secrets of the traditional and organic coffee, from harvest to tasting. However, this won't be the only experience! Also, you will have the opportunity to learn about an important native plant: the coca leaf.

In the afternoon, for those seeking more adrenaline, we offer an optional rafting activity on the Vilcanota River—a safe and thrilling experience that connects you with the power of nature. The rafting route features a mix of calm stretches and class III to III+ rapids, lasting about 2 hours over approximately 8 kilometers. At the end of the day, a comfortable lodge in Santa Teresa will awaits for you.

DAY 03

MACHU PICCHU – CUSCO

The long-awaited day has arrived!

The sacred Inca citadel will invite you to connect with the spirit of the Andes.

After an early breakfast at the hotel, we board the CONSETUR tourist bus, which will take us on a scenic 30-minute ride to the majestic citadel of Machu Picchu, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Along the way, you'll enjoy spectacular views of the Urubamba Canyon, surrounded by mist-covered mountains. Upon your arrival, our expert guide will show you the Machu Picchu sanctuary for approximately 3 hours. Our guide will tell you the secrets of this ancient citadel.

You'll explore its main sectors, including the Temple of the Sun, the Sacred Plaza, the Intihuatana, and the agricultural terraces, while taking in the grandeur of this Andean legacy nestled among the mountains.

After the visit, we take the bus back down to Aguas Calientes, where you'll have free time to enjoy lunch at one of its charming restaurants, shop for souvenirs, or simply relax by the river.

In the afternoon, you'll board the modern Vistadome Observatory train, a luxury experience that will allow you to appreciate the beautiful landscapes of the Sacred Valley of the Incas. During the tour, you'll enjoy various artistic presentations and interpretations featuring traditional music, dance, and costumes.

Once in Ollantaytambo, our private transport will be waiting to take us back to Cusco, where we will arrive in the evening.
